FIERY SPEECH RALLIES HIS "BASE"

STANG VOWS "DEATH TO PINKS"

SACRED SCRIBE DEEMS HIS "TWINKLY" PORTRAYAL IN RECENT FILM "FAKE NEWS, CONSPIRACY PROPAGANDA"

— SallackNews(SG) —

In a giant auditorium AT AN "UNDISCLOSED" location to all but the SubGenius Elect, Rev. Ivan Stang, 114, whose recent appearance in a widely-seen film (reviewed in this issue) caused consternation in the ranks, single-handedly revived his flock with a fiery sermon which elicited shouts of "Praise 'Bob'!" and roars of approval. Gone was the grandfatherly, vaguely benevolent Stang. Back was the wild, possessed, inspired preacher Stang, with his terrifying prophecy of doom. "Mister SubGenius" had returned-- with a vengeance.

"What we must say to the Pinks, to the policeman who stops you, to your Bank Loan officer, to your Conspiracy job 'Boss' -- is that this Church is all just a joke. Tell them it's just like MAD magazine," Stang urged. "Oh, they'll find out soon enough who's joking-- and just who the joke's on! Haw Haw Haw!" The crowd erupted with screams, squeals and shouts of "Praise 'Bob'!" Stang raised his fist. "There'll be a rending of toupées and a gnashing of dentures, when they stare up at those enormous Saucers (Continued p. 2-A)

"OLD SEQUAW" NOW BELIEVED TO BE FEMALE EGGS HAVE HATCHED

SallackNews(SG) Ms. Sequaw? IF SCIENTIST Gil Lacussifter is on to something, "Old Sequaw," the famed Cryptid Guardian of the Wisteria region's bottomless Sacrificial Pond, is a she, not a he. Lacussifter, 61, works for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. In 2018, he collected new specimens from the Pond of the large Snapping Turtles which have recently appeared there. These, according to Dr. Lacussifter, are not fully grown, but rather hatchlings from their parent, who is of enormous dimensions. "Give them plenty of room," he advises swimmers.

FILM REVIEW
Cinema Sans Souci

by Addison DeWitt

A DeWitt Review

DARLINGS, these old eyes just may have spent one hour too many in the dark looking up at the silvery Screen... But this critic has never encountered before such a tedious torrent of taradiddle and footeraw as when he recently viewed the whatever-it-is they're calling J.R. 'Bob' Dobbs and the Church of the SubGenius, from S.K. Boone Productions of Austin, Texas. Well, I must tell you that I, Addison Curllip-Sneary DeWitt, walked out of this poor excuse for a movie, just after the opening credits, finding nothing at all that resembled cinema entertainment there. Yet, upon reflection, I did walk back inside, remembering I had left behind my Jumbo tub of buttered popcorn, constellated with delectable Milk Duds! Ahh... c'est le Piece de résistance! As to the film, two backwoods-men, one with a very long beard, spend it de-legitimizing a Church they created... it does sound boring, eh ducklings? The one in the Greek fisherman's cap (why? A Fisher of Men?) keeps saying, "It's all just a joke. It's just a big joke." Really? Then, why the Church? Why, indeed, the film? Methinks "Ivan Stang" doth protest too much... And so I gratefully turned to a treat for the true cineste-Latvian artistic movie-maker Szčandrulewycz Gruntewxy's 6-hour 8mm masterpiece, Grain Elevators of Kyrgyzstan, a new (Continued on page 14-A)

THE XISTS-ARE THEY ALREADY HERE?
by Byron Harris
Nano-Heliograph Staff Writer
We visited DR. T. L. R. Witherstein, "The Man Who Contacted The X-ists," at the former Deep Space Monitoring Station in Columbus, Ohio, now a dark and shuttered facility. "Of course they're here-- they have been since '98," he told us. "What nobody can understand is how much more advanced than us they really are. They have got the Quanto-Gravitic Drive! They're able to survive superluminal travel by modifying their bodies at the molecular level-- they could be anything you see right here... Don't use that ash tray!" His voice rose shrilly. "That's actually Supreme Fleet Commander (Continued page 4-A)

“SCHEDULE”

The greatness that is X-Day lies not in what is planned but what is NOT planned. Anyone can be a participant and performer. It's just that if you're really bad, you might be punished in some way. Every tent is a potential orgy, every square inch of dirt a stage. The experienced preachers may be hogging the stage and “live radio” facilities most of the time, but don't hesitate to ask if you can sit in.

Registration/Sales: Cafe, Noon (or so) to 5 (or so) every day

All Day: 24/7 Grindhouse movies at Location TBA

Tuesday: stage prep; live shows at cafe then the big stage

Wednesday: too hot/wet (stay at cafe, bring chargers, watch the live radio show and/or jamming/ranting)

Thursday: Forget what day it is, totally revise schedule; stay up all night, upset everyone

Friday, July 5: 7:00 A.M. at Stone Circle: The Rupture; World Ends!

...OR... everybody goes back to bed for a while, followed by hours of cursing, moaning and excuses in the cafe or various camps, Ask Dr. Hal, Bulldada Auction, rant/jams.

Saturday: Recuperate from Friday, Bobtism in Pond 2 pm; Costume Or Not Party and feast 4 pm, more Bulldada Auction, noise on stage(s) by surviving performers, “Bob” Burning

Sunday: Slacking, jamming, last-minute conversions

REGISTRATION: CHECK-IN

If you're reading this, which no one actually does, you probably already know that after paying your Wisteria camping fees you must check in with SubGenius Foundation representatives and receive the Electro-Stimulo Negative Reinforcement Bracelet.

IMPORTANT — Johnny Law

If it's illegal in the Conspiracy's world, it's still illegal here. Underage drinking, false drugs, and especially assassination are not permitted. Wisteria has its own security. If you do need help, you should find a Wisteria staff member or a SubGenius Hierarchite, easily summoned from the office trailers in the center of Wisteria.

The state police may drive through Wisteria, and if you see them patrolling, DO NOT FLIP OUT. They are probably just looking to buy “Bob” t-shirts. If you don't prance around in front of them inanelly being illegal, they will show you the same respect.

FIREWORKS ARE ILLEGAL IN OHIO.

RANTERS/BANDS

This schedule is nonexistent. If you want to perform on stage in some manner, tell Rev. Stang when he's not in the middle of recording a show. We'll have some kind of sign-in sheet or ever-changing upcoming events board. However, what many SubGeniuses remember most fondly from X-Day Drills is standing in the road talking.

NAKEDITY

Wisteria is a clothing optional campground, although you can't run around naked up by the highway. Most nice looking young people seem to remain clothed. However, you may see the occasional senior going “skylad.” Try not to laugh. This is their ethnic cultural custom. Unlike in many national parks, however, you are allowed to feed the naked seniors.

VIDEO/AUDIO

If you do NOT want your image to be used in X-Day promotional documentaries, you must inform Rev. Stang or SubGenius Authorities, and also you should lurk unobtrusively in the background. Otherwise it will be assumed that you won't mind being seen online or in an X-Day documentary. Likewise, you do not need our permission to photograph or videotape an event, but you should exercise common courtesy and make sure the person you're photographing doesn't object. We reserve the right to destroy the equipment and confiscate the recordings of dipshit mediographers who irritate the staff, performers or audience. That holds true for any type of dipshit. We'll confiscate your presence.

TRASH

We want the Earth to be pristine when we destroy it. Also, we love to make the pagans look like litterbugs by comparison. Please don't leave cans, bottles, cig butts or 'Frop sticks around. Trash and recycling bins are everywhere, and dumpsters are near the Wisteria entrance. Please carry your trash out. We know that the Earth will soon be one gigantic flaming oilslick, but in the meantime we beg your indulgence. BUILD AND SWAB YOUR OWN SHIP.

BULLDADA AUCTION

Bring your Bulldada to sell off in the name of the Church! And be ready to spend money. One SubGenius's hateful unwanted crap is another SubGenius' beloved belabored postmodernist inadvertent camp masterpiece.

Pope Sternodex

NOISE

Many of us are up practically all night, being noisy. If you can't sleep with loud music or drumming going on nearby, you should take SPECIAL CARE to camp far from others. Wisteria has many private, distant, quiet campsites. If you camp close to other camps, DON'T GIVE THEM GRIEF for partying all night long. That's what X-Day at Wisteria is for. The noise isn't their problem, but yours. Move to another spot further in the woods. It's much cooler there too.

EMERGENCY FIRST AID

Please attempt to handle any minor injuries yourself, but if you feel you need a professional, don't hesitate to ask at Wisteria main office (or any SubGenius Hierarchite carrying a walkie-talkie or a BIG STICK (used for acubeating or transferral of pain)).

Helpful Hints:

We can take credit cards for registration and sales, but we prefer cash. There is an ATM at Wisteria. Wisteria has a nice cafe, a small general store, drinking water, cell phone re-charging stations, compost buckets for food scraps, wastewater barrels (for after dishwashing), WiFi, a pay phone for outgoing or collect calls (cell phone reception may be iffy), MANY porta-potties, a new shower house with private stalls, and they sell firewood. (Do NOT bring firewood from outside due to invasive bugs.) Use the many communal fire pits; don't dig your own. Bring a campstove if you want to cook. Pets are NOT allowed. Wisteria may provide a hand-out with additional rules and suggestions. It is a huge area with many gorgeous hiking trails. We suggest Athens for shops, laundry, restaurants, motels, etc.; it's only 18 miles away and very nice. Pomeroy is closer but smaller.
